Meta to slash Metaverse budget by 30 per cent, shift focus to AI glasses and wearables

Add INDIA TODAY as a

According to reports first published by Bloomberg, Meta executives have discussed major funding cuts within the Reality Labs division, the home of its metaverse ambitions. The reductions, expected to begin early next year, could also bring job losses across teams working on virtual and augmented reality projects.

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

Meta CEO Mark Zuckerberg

By: Unnati Gusain

New Dehi, Dec 5, 2025 09:46 IST

Meta is pulling back from the virtual world it once bet its future on. Chief executive Mark Zuckerberg is preparing to cut the company's metaverse budget by as much as 30 per cent, signalling a dramatic strategic shift towards artificial intelligence and wearable technology. After years of pouring billions into Horizon Worlds and Quest headsets, Zuckerberg appears ready to trade avatars for algorithms.

ADVERTISEMENT

According to reports first published by Bloomberg, Meta executives have discussed major funding cuts within the Reality Labs division, the home of its metaverse ambitions. The reductions, exp Read Full Story xt year, could also bring job losses across teams working on virtual and augmented reality projects.

Latest News Headlines

Video: Hermes, Louis Vuitton, Rolex stores looted during violent France protests | Rakhi Sawant faces non-bailable warrant in suicide case linked to her show | Himachal smart meter row escalates after pradhan's power supply is cut | Anthropic is courting lawyers to teach AI agents how to negotiate and strike deals like humans | Indian Embassy issues emergency advisory for nationals in Saudi Arabia | Kolkata Durga Puja Stampede Kills 19; Amit Shah Visits Injured, 7 Arrested | Kolkata Stampede Kills 19: TMC Slams BJP Over VIP Security, 7 Arrested | At 4, a whale's death moved him. At 11, he is set for Junior Jane Goodall Earth Medal | Delhi court convicts man for shooting wife after she refused to return home | Durga Puja Pandal Stampede: Amit Shah Cancels Bengal Events, Meets Injured at Kolkata Hospital | 2 women die after C-sections at Rajasthan hospital, months after May tragedy | Prince Narula urges fans to stop romanticising bond with Splitsvilla 8's Karishma | Anchor or finisher? Versatile Tilak Varma ready to change roles at one day's notice | Gwalior Temple Tragedy: Death Toll Rises to 15, 33 Injured, PM Modi Announces Ex-Gratia | Why Chennai got drenched on Saturday: Northeast monsoon is now active over Tamil Nadu

GET IT ON Google Play
Download on the App Store
Android Smart Tv App

Copyright © 2026 Living Media India Limited. For reprint rights: Syndications Today